

Pleated Low Seat Sofa

Sofas / Linear Forms

Continuous pleats run across the back and seat of this low sofa, following a body that slopes backwards. The warm-yellow photographed covering brings out the grooves and the rounded transitions around the edges.

Its low position changes the relationship with a coffee table or adjoining chair. Compare those heights together and consider how the sloping back will appear within the wider seating group.

Design & construction

Pleats continue across the back and seat, with a low body that slopes backward. The warm yellow shown in the photographs highlights the surface and soft edges.

Care instructions

Gently dust the grooves along the pleats; do not use stiff brushes, pick at them or pull the pleated surface flat.

Dust the lower edge of the low seat before cleaning the floor; keep mop water away from the covering.

The covering and filling follow the confirmed order; do not remove covers, soak the item or beat the filling before checking the care label.
